henryofficial It may not work out the way you want it to. But it will all work out. It may not work out on your timeline. But it will all work out. It may not be easy. But it will all work out. It may not be painless. It may not be convenient. It may not come without great sacrifice. But it will all work out. It may come with tears, anger and discouragement. But it will all work out. Whether it's a relationship in shambles, a career leap of faith, a passion gone off the rails or a failure of epic proportions. No negative in life can trump the belief that it won't last forever. We get through things. We come out on the other side. Sometimes we get rerouted. But we keep moving. Despite how difficult it may be to see past the present, in time, it will all work out. It always does. As long as you let it. .
